

,,,,,, Neither do I condemn you, Go and sin no more.

The encounter between Jesus, the Scribes and Pharisees, with the adulterous woman at the centre of the issues was one of the most beautiful ways of Christ, showing God's intentions for man. Ezekiel 18: 23 said, "God does not wish the death of sinners but for the sinners to turn from their evil ways and live "

In the first reading, God said " I am doing something new, giving waters to the dry land " (souls that has departed from God). God wishes all to repent and come back to Him. St Paul witnessed to that when he said, because God has found him, He has valued the knowledge of knowing Christ more than anything in this world. Though not achieved by his own power but by the grace of God.

Let us all have a rethink of our past life, drop our stones, repent and come back to the Father who never condemned us. He is ever willing as a merciful father to welcome us back.

Do not delay, come back now, Jesus loves you.

Fr Sebastian.

Marriage Tip: Lenten check-in: How can your family incorporate a spirit of Lent into your home? Maybe an extra prayer at dinner or a service project together?

April 6, 2025 - 5th Sunday of Lent

"...For his sake I have accepted the loss of all things and I consider them so much rubbish, that I may gain Christ..." (PHILIPPIANS 3:8)

The first commandment says that we should not put other gods before the Lord. Sharing all of our gifts. Living stewardship by sharing our time in prayer, our talent in charitable works, and our treasure to support the Church helps us keep God first in everything. It helps us from putting other gods before God. It helps us from becoming a slave to our possessions. It helps us to use our gifts for the glory of God and not for the glory of ourselves.
