

""PROACTIVENESS IS THE WORD ""

In the gospel of St Luke today, Christ gave the teachings about "the dishonest Steward " The actions of the Steward when he got the idea of his losing the job is what should be studied.

He made plans for tomorrow. He strategically made friends with so many people that he might not suffer afterwards. That should be the thinking of all believers. We must always think about how our eternity will look like and work for it. Living life of honesty and treating the poor and disadvantaged people around us positively as explained by Amos in the first reading could also be ways of getting ourselves prepared.

We must always pray for each other for strength and focus on God in our actions. The question is, how prepared are you today? Think about that.

Fada Sebastian.

Blessed Carlo Acutis
A MUST-SEE FREE DIOCESAN EVENT!
From September 17 to 29, 2025.

Message from Archbishop Albert LeGatt:
 “I strongly encourage you to attend one of the many presentations open to all ages that will be offered from September 17 to 29 in our diocese. The faith life of this young man and his love for the Eucharist are a powerful witness for all of us. Take the opportunity to let your heart be touched by his story. “Saint Carol Acutis, pray for us.” Let us unite in prayer so that this event may renew, in everyone present, a new breath of love for Jesus, present in the Eucharist. There is a poster on the bulletin board in the lobby of the church outlining times and locations.

Our Lady of La Salette Pilgrimage –
September 20 & 21, 2025

St. Mary's Parish invites you to Our Lady of La Salette Pilgrimage on Saturday, September 20 and Sunday, September 21 in Beausejour, Mb. Come join this spiritual journey filled with reverence, reconciliation and renewal. Join us for one or both days. If you have any questions, please contact us at info@stmarybeausejour.com or call us at our parish office at 204-268-2453.

The Catholic Church dedicates the month of September to Our Lady of Sorrows. The joys and sorrows of Our Lady are incredible—it does us good to meditate upon them. In fact, in Saint Bridget of Sweden’s visions of Our Lady, Mary herself asks us to contemplate her sorrows! “My eyes were full of tears when I contemplated the places in my Son’s body destined for the nails as well as His future passion, and when I saw all the prophecies I had heard foretold by the prophets being fulfilled in Him. And now I look around at everyone who is in the world to see if there happens to be some who might have compassion on me and be mindful of my sorrow, but I find very few who think about my sorrow and tribulation. This is why, my daughter, although I am forgotten and neglected by many people, you must not forget me! Look at my struggles and imitate them as far as you can! Contemplate my sorrow and tears and be sorry that the friends of God are so few. (Revelations Book 2; chapter 24) [1])

Pope’s prayer intention September 2025: For our relationship with all of creation Let us pray that, inspired by Saint Francis, we might experience our interdependence with all creatures who are loved by God and worthy of love and respect.

Marriage Tip Vulnerability is a great gift spouses give each other. When your spouse is vulnerable, be sure to be gentle. It takes courage and humility to trust someone with your deepest fears or hurts.

September 21, 2025 - 25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“No servant can serve two masters. He will hate one and love the other or be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon (wealth).” LUKE 16:13

Jesus knows that for many of us, God and money run “neck and neck” as top priority. Is money a “god” that you put before God? Giving money to support the Church and other charity is a pillar of our faith, just like attending Mass every Sunday and participating in parish ministry. Giving money through stewardship frees us from becoming a slave to money. It increases our dependence on God and our trust that God will provide all that we need.
